

4 CAREER GUIDANCE WEBSITES

THERE ARE LOTS OF WEBSITES OUT THERE WITH INFORMATION ABOUT JOBS AND CAREERS AND IT CAN BE OVERWHELMING TO KNOW WHERE TO START. WE'VE PICKED OUT FOUR OF THE BEST TO GET YOU GOING

1

NATIONALCAREERS.SERVICE.GOV.UK

This website is for any young people and adults who are looking for jobs or training in England. Once you've found a job, it will tell you lots of useful info like the average salary, normal working hours and the skills you need. You can also search for vacancies for courses and training you might need to work in that sector.

UCAS.COM/CAREERS-ADVICE

UCAS is mostly used to apply to university, but did you know they also have pages where you can explore different career pathways? You can search for specific jobs or explore lots of different options by selecting courses you can study or skills you need.

PROSPECTS.AC.UK

The Prospects website is the best place to search for current job vacancies, internships, apprenticeship opportunities and more. Even if you're not ready to start work yet, it's useful to see what skills and qualifications different employers are asking for.

ICOULD.COM

icould.com uses real life experiences and stories to bring jobs to life. The site features over 1000 videos of real people talking about their careers so you can hear firsthand what it's really like to do certain jobs.
